

Education needed on stopping sexual abuse

I found the op-ed by Richard Alexander and Eugene Hyman on the prevention of child sexual abuse to be extremely relevant and timely. As a community, we must work together with the school districts, police officers and parents to provide this education in elementary schools. Let's start the school year with this education and immediately work to right this wrong.

Julia Miller

Former mayor Sunnyvale