- Consultant - Juvenile Justice Reform Project of the Organisation of Eastern Caribbean States (OECS). Provided expertise and review of training in Antigua, St. Vicent, St. Kitts, Dominica, St. Lucia, and Grenada. Funded by the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) and administered by the National Center for State Courts. (July, 2014)

- UNITED NATIONS DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME, BELARUS June, 2013
  International Juvenile Law Expert

  Volunteer, with another member of the American judiciary and a Canadian gender law legal expert, by UNDP/Belarus, for a project relating to a concept paper on court organization in Belarus. I was the juvenile expert for this project. I researched and wrote a juvenile law review of the project, identifying the knowledge required for the project to be successful from a judicial and policy perspective. I travelled to Minsk, Belarus, where, with my colleagues, I presented this review document at a Round Table of judges, UN officials and others. I also attended various meetings in Minsk to talk about international standards of juvenile law.

- Provided review, comments and suggestions to the Ottowa National Judicial Institute in a domestic violence and family law series.

Acknowledgements

The author would like to thank academic and judicial reviewers who assisted the author and the National Judicial Institute by reviewing extensively the first edition of the judicial bench book, Katherine Kehoe for editorial assistance with 2009 edition, and particularly Justice John F McGarry for reviews, guidance, and assisting the author in bringing the original bench book to fruition. The author would also like to thank former Superior Court of California Judge Eugene M Hyman for his review comments and suggestions, his dedication to domestic violence law reform, and particularly for his never ending circulation of domestic violence materials to me, other academics, lawyers and judges. In addition, the author would like to thank the University of New Brunswick for its academic support and last, but not least, my husband, Anthony for both his personal support and editorial assistance with this e-book.
